

DEALING WITH PERCEIVED FAILURE

In this video, we share two areas of perceived failure: relational and circumstantial. We also discuss what you can do to change these feelings of being a failure.

INTRODUCTION (00:00)

God called Abraham to the land flowing with milk and honey — The Promised Land. When Abraham arrives, he is greeted with failure (or a famine). Obedience is not always rewarded with success.

1. Has there ever been a time in your life that you felt God asking you to do something, but it did not end up how you expected (or that it got worse) — this could be either in a relationship or circumstance?

3 QUESTIONS WE ASK AMIDST PERCEIVED FAILURE (03:55)

We often question: our value to the Heavenly Father, our ability to hear the Holy Spirit's voice, and whether God is good — we question His character.

2. When was the last time you questioned your value?
3. When was the last time you questioned being able to hear God's voice?
4. When was the last time you questioned God's character and goodness?

ACTIVATION (08:25)

- 1) Evaluate your definition of success.
- 2) Resolve the loss of your expectation, relationship, job, dream, career, etc. with God using The Freedom Booklet.
- 3) Choose to believe God is good.
